JOB SECURITY AND LAYOFF

ARTICLE 5 - JOB SECURITY

- 5.01 (a) During the life of this agreement, the employer will make every reasonable effort to provide continued employment for full-time and part-time employees, excluding term employees. Should a re-organization occur, every reasonable effort will be made to provide alternate employment opportunities to the affected employees at equivalent levels within the same geographic region. The employer will provide retraining as an alternative to layoff when a vacancy exists and the employee can demonstrate an aptitude to meet the new job requirements within a reasonable period of time.
- (b) The employer further agrees that during the life of this agreement full-time and part-time employees, excluding term employees, will not be laid off or have their hours reduced as a result of the employer contracting out work.

ARTICLE 6 - NOTICE OF LAY-OFF

- 6.01 When, at the direction of the Employer a position is eliminated or the hours of work are reduced by more than 25%, the employer will provide the affected employee(s) with notice of lay-off. The employee shall be given three months' notice in writing of the effective date of lay-off or three (3) months' salary and benefits in lieu of such notice, except where the laid off employee exercises his/her right to bump another employee in accordance with the provisions of Article 7.04b) in which case the laid off employee has no entitlement to payment under this Article. . The option of providing three (3) months' notice or payment in lieu of such notice shall be decided by the employer. With the mutual agreement of the employee and the employer, a combination of notice and payment in lieu of such notice may be arranged. A cumulative reduction by the Employer in the hours of work of more than 25% within a 36 month period shall be considered to be a lay-off and treated accordingly under the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - LAY-OFF, SENIORITY AND RECALL

- 7.01 For the purpose of this Article, layoff means the termination or reduction of more than 25% of working hours per week of an employee's employment as a consequence of curriculum change, insufficient enrollment, reductions or reorganization of workload, discontinuation of a service or services, elimination of a program or programs, inadequate funding or as a result of being bumped.
- 7.02 Seniority
- (a) When a need to do a layoff is identified, if the ability, qualifications and experience are relatively equal, the employee with the least seniority will be designated for layoff.

- (b) A full-time or part-time employee who has been given layoff notice or who has been bumped by another employee has the right to exercise seniority and is entitled to provisions of this article.
- (c) Seniority for a bargaining unit member shall be the total number of continuous days of service (rounded to the nearest half day) an employee has been employed in any position at the College. Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement, approved leaves of absence with or without pay shall not interrupt continuous service for the purpose of calculating seniority.
- (d) An employee's length of service shall be maintained while on the recall list.

7.03 Recall

- (a) Employees on the recall list shall be recalled, in accordance with their seniority, provided they have the necessary ability, qualifications and experience to do the available work.
- (b) An employee laid off will remain on the recall list for a period of 18 months commencing with the date of layoff.
- (c) An Employee recalled shall not be required to serve a new probationary period.
- (d) Where an employee refuses a recall to a comparable permanent position of equivalent hours to the position held prior to the layoff, the local union will be notified. Where the same employee refuses a subsequent recall to a comparable permanent position of equivalent hours to the position during the same recall period, the employee's recall rights will be terminated unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

7.04 Alternatives to Layoff

- (a) Two (2) weeks before a notice of layoff is issued, a Layoff Review Committee consisting of the appropriate Director/Dean (or designate), two Union Representatives and the Human Resource Services Director will begin meeting with the affected employee(s) and review the merits of and consider the available alternatives. The Committee will review the current ability, qualifications and experience of an employee affected by layoff and consider
 - i) whether the employee has the ability and qualifications for appointment to a vacant position
 - ii) whether bumping is a reasonable alternative
 - iii) whether retraining for a vacant position is a reasonable alternative
 - iv) whether job sharing is a reasonable alternative
 - v) whether a leave of absence would assist a recall opportunity

The Layoff Review Committee will recommend any appropriate alternatives, if available, to the President. Should the Committee not be able to agree, the Committee members will forward their individual recommendations.

- (b) An employee who has been given notice of layoff or who has been bumped, and who has the necessary ability, qualifications, experience and seniority, has the right to displace another employee within the same or the next two lower pay levels and receive the appropriate classification rate of pay
- (c) The decision to bump another employee must be made within fifteen (15) working days of the notice of layoff.
- (d) As an alternative to layoff the Employer will provide retraining to an employee where a vacancy exists and the employee can demonstrate an aptitude to meet the new job requirements within a reasonable period of time.
- (e) As an alternative to layoff, the Employer will consider requests for “job sharing” where the employees directly concerned agree to participate; where the educational and/or support services are not diminished; and where there are no significant additional costs to the Employer.
- (f) As an alternative to layoff and where there is a reasonable expectation that the employee will benefit from a leave of absence and there is an expectation by the Employer that the employee will be recalled to work, then a request for a leave of absence will be considered. Where leave is granted then recall rights will commence upon expiration of the leave.
- (g) As an alternative to recall, bumping and other provisions of Article 7.03, the employer may offer a sum of money in exchange for an employee’s rights under this Article.
- (h) In circumstances where an employee’s hours have been decreased, it is agreed that the employee shall have first claim on returning to full time:
 - (i) where there is a reinstatement of the former work or,
 - (ii) where similar duties can be assigned on an operationally feasible basis, where the educational and or support services are not diminished, and where there are no significant additional costs to the Employer. In the case of instruction, the affected instructor must possess the ability, qualifications and experience to teach the relevant subjects.
- (i) Employee Assistance Program and career counseling will be available for laid off employees for a period of up to 18 months after the effective date of layoff.

 - (b) The change in the manner in which the Employer carries on the work, undertaking or business which is directly related to the introduction of that equipment or material.
- 8.03
- (a) Where the Employer proposes to effect a technological change that is likely to affect the term and conditions or security of employment of a significant number of employees, the Employer shall give notice to the Union not less than six (6) months prior to the date on which the technological change is to be implemented.
 - (b) When technological change pursuant to 8.03(a) requires additional knowledge and skill on the part of the employees, the Employees shall be given the appropriate training practical to qualify employees to retain their employment. A reasonable time will be afforded to the Employees in which to qualify. Any instruction or training shall be done at the employee's regular rate and during scheduled working hours.
- 8.04 The provisions of the Canada Labour Code regarding notice and negotiation will be applied in instances of technological change.

ARTICLE 9 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 9.01 Subject to the provisions of this Collective Agreement, except where otherwise specified in the agreement, the Employer has the obligation and right to manage the business and educational affairs of the College.

ARTICLE 11 - DISCIPLINE

11.01 Disciplinary measures are intended to be corrective rather than punitive in nature. They should serve to

- (a) correct an employee's misconduct by deterring similar acts of misconduct in the future; and
- (b) motivate that employee to observe required standards of conduct.

11.02 Discipline and Discharge Application

Before disciplinary action can be taken against an employee

- (a) there must have been an incident or act calling for a reaction;
- (b) there must be proof of the employee's involvement in the incident or commission of the act; and
- (c) the employee must be aware of the grounds for the action taken and be given an opportunity to present their version of the facts. When an employee is required to attend a meeting, the purpose of which is an investigation that may result in formal discipline concerning him/her or the purpose of which is to render formal discipline concerning him/her, the employee is entitled to have at his or her request a representative of the Union attend the meeting. Where practicable, the employee shall receive a minimum of one (1) day's notice of such a meeting.

11.03 A report of an employee's misconduct shall be initiated without unreasonable delay, normally within three (3) working days of the day on which the offence is discovered or, if the employee is absent, within three (3) working days of returning to work.

11.04 All employees must be provided with written notice of discipline and discharge which must state

- (a) the reasons for the discipline or discharge;
- (b) the effective date of the discipline or discharge; and
- (c) what arrangements will be made regarding the financial entitlements as a result of the discipline or discharge.

11.05 Discipline and discharge shall only be for just cause.

- 11.06 An employee's personnel file is the official record of performance appraisals, letters of reprimand, or other written communication between the Employer and the employee. No documentation will be entered into this file unless the employee is advised of it and has the opportunity to respond. Any response shall be part of the personnel file. An employee shall be allowed to peruse his/her own personnel file. The employee shall be allowed to copy any contents of the file.
- 11.07 A document or written statement specifically related to disciplinary action or performance which may have been placed on the personnel file of an employee, shall at the request of the employee, be destroyed after twenty-four months has elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken and provided that no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period.
- 11.08 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing relating to a disciplinary action any document including any performance evaluation review, from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing, or within a reasonable period thereafter.
- 11.09 Access to an employee's personnel file will be authorized through:
- a) Written authorization from the employee.
 - b) The employee signing a grievance form (which authorizes the Union to full access to the file unless the employee has indicated limited access).
 - c) The normal course of duties for Human Resources Services staff or the employee's supervisor.

The parties agree that appropriate confidentiality will be maintained in all situations.

ARTICLE 12 - PROCESSING OF GRIEVANCES

- 12.01 If they so desire, an employee may be assisted and/or represented by the Alliance at the complaint level and/or when presenting a Grievance at any level.
- 12.02 An employee who wishes to present a Grievance at any prescribed level in the grievance procedure, shall transmit this Grievance to their immediate supervisor or YCEU Local or YEU officer in charge who shall forthwith
- (a) forward the Grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with Grievances at the appropriate level; and
 - (b) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the Grievance was received by him.

Before an employee submits their complaint as a Grievance, the employee is encouraged to discuss the complaint with the appropriate immediate supervisor, Dean or Director in an attempt to resolve it.

- 12.03 A Grievance of an employee shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact it is not in accordance with the form supplied by the Employer.
- 12.04 An employee who feels that they have been treated unjustly or consider himself/herself aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer, is entitled to present a Grievance in the manner prescribed in Clause 12.02, except that where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any other Act to deal with their specific complaint, such procedure must be followed. A "policy grievance" which, due to its nature, is not properly the subject of an employee grievance, may be initiated by the Alliance.
- 12.05 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a Grievance shall be processed by recourse to the following steps:
- First Level — Appropriate Staff with the Director of the Division or Appropriate Dean;
 - Second Level — the Director of Human Resource Services;
 - Final Level — President
- 12.06 The Union or the Alliance shall have the right to consult with the appropriate Employer's representative(s), other than the President, with respect to a Grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure, subject to Clause 12.01.
- 12.07 An employee may present a Grievance to the First Level of the procedure, in the manner prescribed in Clause 12.02 no later than fifteen (15) working days after the date on which they are notified orally or in writing or on which they first become aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the Grievance.
- 12.08 An employee may present a Grievance at each succeeding level in the grievance procedure beyond the First Level either
- (a) where the decision or settlement is not satisfactory to them, within fifteen (15) working days after that decision or settlement has been conveyed in writing to them by the Employer's representative for that Level; or
 - (b) where the Employer's representative for that Level has not conveyed a decision to them, within fifteen (15) working days after they presented the Grievance at the previous level.
- 12.09 The Employer shall normally reply to an employee's Grievance at the first level of the grievance procedure within fifteen (15) working days after the Grievance is presented, and within twenty (20) working days where the Grievance is presented at the final level.
- 12.10 Where an employee has been represented by the Union or the Alliance in the presentation of their Grievance, the Employer will provide the appropriate representative of the Alliance with a copy of the Employer's decision at each level of the grievance procedure at the same time that the Employer's decision is conveyed to the employee.

- 12.11 The decision given by the Employer at the Final Level in the grievance procedure shall be final and binding upon the employee, unless the Grievance is a class of Grievance that may be referred to arbitration. Grievance with respect to the interpretation or application of the collective agreement can only be referred to arbitration with the consent of the bargaining agent.
- 12.12 Where the provisions of Clause 12.02 cannot be complied with and it is necessary to present a Grievance by mail, the Employer shall be deemed to have delivered a reply at any level on the date on which the letter containing the reply is postmarked, but the time limit within which the grievor may present their Grievance at the next higher level shall be calculated from the date on which the Employer's reply was delivered to the address shown on the grievance form.
- 12.13 The time limits stipulated in this procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee and, where appropriate, the Union or Alliance representative.
- 12.14 Where it appears that the nature of this Grievance is such that a decision cannot be given below a particular level of authority, any or all the levels except the Final Level may be eliminated by agreement between the Employer and the employee, and, where applicable, the Alliance.
- 12.15 Except as provided in Clause 12.19, an employee may, by written notice to their immediate supervisor or officer in charge, abandon a Grievance.
- 12.16 Any employee who fails to present a Grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the Grievance unless, due to circumstances beyond their control, they were unable to comply with the prescribed time limits.
- 12.17 No person who is employed in a managerial or confidential capacity shall seek by intimidation, by threat of dismissal or by any other kind of threat to cause an employee to abandon their Grievance or refrain from exercising their right to present a Grievance, as provided in the Collective Agreement.
- 12.18 Where an employee has presented a Grievance up to and including the Final Level in the grievance procedure with respect to the interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement, and their Grievance has not been dealt with to their satisfaction, they may refer the Grievance to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Canada Labour Code.

ARTICLE 56 - HARASSMENT

56.01 The Alliance, the employees and the Employer recognize that every employee can expect to be treated fairly in the workplace in an environment free of discrimination, and personal or sexual harassment. Any behaviour which denies individuals their dignity and respect and is offensive, embarrassing, humiliating will not be tolerated. Harassment of another employee or of a College client carrying out duties or providing goods, services, facilities, or accommodation constitutes an infraction which may result in disciplinary action up to and including discharge and termination of employment for cause. The use of authority or position to intimidate, coerce or harass is strictly forbidden.

56.02 Personal harassment is any behaviour by any person that is directed at and is offensive to an employee or endangers an employee's job, undermines the performance of that job or threatens the economic livelihood of the employee. It is behavior either in comment or conduct, that is unsolicited, and is known or ought reasonably to be known as unwelcome, which demeans or humiliates another person and which denies individuals their dignity and respect. Personal harassment includes, but is not limited to, abusive or belittling remarks or jokes, goading, sarcasm, speaking loudly in a threatening angry, intimidating and/or aggressive tone, swearing, and other actions that are disruptive to work production and the physical or psychological well-being of others.

Sexual harassment is comprised of offensive sexual comments, gestures or physical contact that a person knew or reasonably ought to have known would be deemed objectionable or offensive, either on a one-time basis or in a continuous series of incidents, however minor. Generally, sexual harassment is behaviour of a sexual nature that is deliberate and unsolicited that a person knew or reasonably ought to have known would be deemed objectionable or offensive. Sexual harassment is coercive and one-sided and both males and females can be victims of it.

Abuse of authority occurs when an individual uses their authority or position with its implicit power to undermine, sabotage or otherwise interfere with or influence the career of another employee or in the provisions of goods and services to the public. This definition includes blatant acts of misuse of authority such as intimidation, threats, blackmail and coercion. However, the abuse of authority does not include the legitimate exercise of individual supervisory powers and authority.

In investigating harassment allegations, the test of whether harassment has occurred will be that a "reasonable person" would conclude harassment had occurred.

ARTICLE 58 - ACADEMIC FREEDOMS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

It is recognized that a college environment characterized by freedom of speech and of enquiry is important for the members to carry out the College purpose. Freedom of speech allows the College to function as an open forum for the exchange of ideas. Freedom of enquiry supports the College's commitment to the open investigation and interpretation of ideas.

The right to raise probing questions and challenges to beliefs of society are an important component of academic freedom.

The parties agree to respect the right of all members of the academic community to exercise their academic freedom.

The commitments, rights and responsibilities of members include three major related roles: to participate in the search for basic truths, and to communicate openly the results of this search; to develop creative scholarship in specific disciplines, within which the students participate in the process of rational enquiry; to encourage where feasible the generalized application of scholarship and research to the benefit of the college community and the common good of society.

Members are entitled to freedom, without any form of institutional censorship, to disseminate their knowledge both inside and outside the classroom, to conduct research that they believe will enhance knowledge and to communicate the results of such research consistent with the provision of the Association of Canadian Universities for

Northern Studies (ACUNS.CA) "Ethical Principles for the Conduct of Research in the North". (2003)

Members are entitled to exercise their political rights provided they respect their obligations to the Employer specified in the Collective Agreement.

- 58.02 Academic freedom does not require neutrality; rather it carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the Yukon College Code of Ethics and the scholarly obligation to base research, teaching, publication and other forms of scholarly expression on an honest search for knowledge. Academic freedom does not confer legal immunity; nor does it diminish the obligation of members to meet their responsibilities to the College. In the exercise of academic freedom, members shall respect the academic freedom of others.
- 58.03 When exercising their rights of action and expressions as citizens or their rights under this Article, members are responsible to ensure that their private actions are not interpreted as representing Yukon College.

APPENDIX A

MEMORANDUM

JOINT CLASSIFICATION

FINAL REPORT

MEMORANDUM

DATE: 9 July 1992

TO: President Seeth Seethram
All College Staff

FROM: Layne Marshal, Chair
Joint Classification Committee

RE: Final report

In accordance with the terms of reference provided to the Joint Classification Committee, we are happy to announce that we have completed the work assigned to the committee and will be forwarding our recommendations for a classification system as directed.

Specifically:

The committee evaluated and agreed on a system of benchmark positions
The benchmark positions were used to evaluate all other positions covered by the system
The committee agreed upon and accepted the evaluation as presented by the Human Resource Services Department
The committee reviewed computation points and point boundaries and agreed upon the levels and boundaries described below:

Level	Points Boundaries
1	55 - 70
2	71 - 90
3	91 - 110
4	111 - 130
5	131 - 160
6	161 - 190
7	191 - 230
8	231 - 270
9	271 - 330
10	331 - 390
11	391 - 470
12	471 - +

The committee was in full agreement with the final recommendations and the work performed to date. As such, the committee will not be referring any disputes for resolution and considers its mandate completed.

The final comment or recommendation that the committee wishes to make to the college is that the end was slow in coming. This was in part due to transitions on the committee. However, the committee feels strongly that a large part of the problem resulted from incomplete and inconsistent work on position descriptions. We therefore recommend in the strongest terms that concentrated effort be paid to producing position descriptions that are clear, complete and correct.

Original signed 09 July 1992 by: Layne Marshal, Will MacDonald, Nelson Ireland, Dilys Kluthe and Diney Williams.

f) An instructor will not normally be assigned more than 25 student contact hours, 37.5 hours of non-instructional duties or a combination of non-instructional and student contact hours in a week totaling 37.5 hours. However, it is recognized that instructors work in a “peak and valley” workload situation. When required by external agencies/funders, continuing education contracts, trades instruction, or by mutual agreement between the dean/director and the instructor, the student contact hours may be increased to no more than 32.5 in a week and remain subject to the annual workload maximums outlined in (e) above.

g) Field-based instruction

Field-based instruction that is taught as part of an instructor’s regular annual workload (see (e) above) will be considered equivalent to 15 student contact hours for each credit of the course (e.g. 45 contact hours per a 3 credit course) and will receive credit for non-instructional hours as determined in (d) above. The assigned course instructor will receive inconvenience pay of fourteen dollars ($14.00) for each overnight stay that he/she has field-based responsibilities for student supervision.
